4 The results of the consultations:

Türkiye and Indonesia hereby notify the interim results of the consultations conducted under Article 12.3 of the WTO Agreement on Safeguards (the SA) regarding the extension of the safeguard measure on yarns from nylon and other polyamides products originally applied by Türkiye. The present document is without prejudice to the rights reserved and positions expressed by Indonesia in its notification (G/SG/275) and to both Parties' rights and obligations under the GATT 1994 and the SA. Türkiye and Indonesia held the latest consultation on 14 December 2022 to discuss the extension of the Türkiye's safeguard on yarns from nylon and other polyamides products. Both Parties deem it necessary to continue the process of consultations. Accordingly, Türkiye and Indonesia have agreed to extend the 90-day period foreseen in Article 8.2 of the SA until 31 May 2023. This agreement will allow both Parties to seek an understanding on ways to achieve the objective set out in Article 8.1 of the SA.
